AWARDS CRITERIA

DISTRICT AWARD OF MERIT:

This is a National BSA award and is the highest award that the District may bestow on a volunteer. This person is one who supports Scouting on the District level above and beyond just the unit. The recipient may be any adult volunteer in the Coastal District who has been active in District and or Council, lives by the Scout Law, and supports Bay Area Council in the mission to provide a Scouting program for all youth. The nomination cover form is different than the District. Please see nomination form for more details it is available on the Council Web site: www.bacbsa.org.

CUB SCOUT LEADER OF THE YEAR:

This is a local District award. Nomination consists of completing the nomination form and submitting to the District Awards & Recognition Committee. The nomination should detail the outstanding accomplishments of the nominated leader during the previous year.

SCOUTS BSA LEADER OF THE YEAR:

This is a local District award. Nomination consists of completing the nomination form and submitting to the District Awards & Recognition Committee. The nomination should detail the outstanding accomplishments of the Scout leader during the previous year.

VENTURE CREW LEADER OF THE YEAR:

This is a local District award. Nomination consists of completing the nomination form and submitting to the District Awards & Recognition Committee. The nomination should detail the outstanding accomplishments of the Leader during the previous year.

SEA SCOUT / EXPLORER POST LEADER OF THE YEAR:

This is a local District award. Nomination consists of completing the nomination form and submitting to the District Awards & Recognition Committee. The nomination should detail the outstanding accomplishments of the Leader during the previous year.

LIGHTHOUSE AWARD:

This is a local District award. Nomination consists of completing the nomination form and submitting to the District Awards & Recognition Committee. The recipient may be any adult volunteer in the Coastal District who has served as a "shining" example of the principles of scouting, through their exemplary support of the BSA program. The nomination should detail the outstanding accomplishments of the leader during the previous year.

SPARK AWARD:

We can award to 1 person from each unit. This is a local District award. Nomination consists of completing the nomination form and submitting to the District Awards & Recognition Committee. The nomination should detail the outstanding accomplishments of the volunteer whose actions provide the "Inspiration" that helps make the Pack/Troop/Team/Crew/Ship/Post be successful. Nominations are open to all registered leaders in the District.

SCOUTING FAMILY:

Any couples who volunteer in Scouting together and are an example of an "All-In" scouting family.

BE GEORGE:

Nominate someone who is always willing to do the dirty work for District level events without having to hold title of "Chair" or holding formal leadership roles.
